

Postdoctoral Fellow

Summary

Kaleidoscope Center is a small group practice located in O'Fallon, IL. We specialize in providing comprehensive autism evaluations to children and adults. The postdoctoral fellow is responsible for completing comprehensive psychological evaluations under the supervision of a licensed clinical psychologist.

Job Tasks

- Complete comprehensive autism evaluations for children and adults
- Complete comprehensive psychological evaluations for children
- Complete intakes/clinical interviews with clients and their families
- Administer, score, and interpret psychological assessments (cognitive, achievement, rating scales, structured interviews, etc.)
- Complete collateral interviews (therapist, teacher, caseworker, etc.)
- Write psychological reports to communicate the results of evaluations and treatment recommendations to clients, families, and other services providers
- Review results of assessments with clients and their families
- Provide consultation or counseling services (minimal)
- Practice in accordance with APA ethical guidelines and in accordance with state laws/regulations

Minimum Qualifications

- PhD or PsyD in school psychology, clinical psychology, or counseling psychology
- Experience completing psychological evaluations for children
- Experiencing administering and scoring cognitive assessments (WISCV, WAIS-IV, WPPSI-IV, etc.)
- Ability to work with diverse clients
- Ability to complete all required documentation (evaluation reports, case notes, etc.)

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience completing autism evaluations for children and adults
- Experience administering, scoring, and interpreting autism-specific measures (ADOS2, SRS2, CARS2, etc.)

Benefits

- Salary $60,000 full time, $30,000 part-time (20 hours/week)
- Paid time off (vacation, paid holidays, sick time)
- 401K match

Applicants send CV to rminelli@kaleidoscopecenter.org

Psychometrist (Part-Time)

Summary

Kaleidoscope Center is a small group practice located in O'Fallon, IL. We specialize in providing comprehensive autism evaluations to children and adults. The psychometrist is responsible for administering and scoring assessments under the supervision of a licensed clinical psychologist. This position is part-time (10-20 hours per week).

Job Tasks

- Administer and score psychological assessments (cognitive, achievement, rating scales, etc.)
- Administer assessments to children and adults
- Document behavioral observations

Minimum Qualifications

- Completion of graduate coursework in psychology
- Experience administering and scoring cognitive assessments (WISCV, WAIS-IV, WPPSI-IV, etc.)
- Ability to work with diverse clients
- Ability to complete all required documentation
- Good communication skills

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience administering and scoring autism-specific measures (ADOS2, SRS2, CARS2, etc.)

Benefits

- Pay $30/hour
- Paid time off
- 401K match

Applicants send CV to rminelli@kaleidoscopecenter.org